SINGAPORE SOUTHERN ISLANDS YACHT GUIDED TOUR

Embark on a scenic yacht cruise of Singapore's southern islands to discover their place in Singapore's origins, history, biodiversity, and future. Let your guide tell you stories as you sail by places like the Raffles Lighthouse at Singapore's southernmost tip and the man-made Lazarus Island and its beautiful beaches. Then, disembark on Kusu Island – also known as “Turtle Island” in Hokkien – to hear all about its magical folktales.

Escape the hustle and bustle of the city and get on the water to see a different side of Singapore.”

A MELTING POT OF TEA

Singapore was once the main trading hub for tea leaves in the region. Its diverse cultures, traditions, beliefs, and identities helped the local tea business to thrive, and the country was united by the common love for tea. In this immersive tour, you will get a deeper understanding of Singapore's rich tea origins through four different cups of tea and get real hands-on experience of the entire tea-making process from leaf to cup.
