ABOUT SINGAPORE

Singapore is much more than the sum of its numerous attractions. It's constantly evolving, reinventing, and reimagining itself, with people who are passionate about creating new possibilities. It's where foodies, explorers, collectors, action seekers, culture shapers, progressors, and socialisers meet – and new experiences are created every day.

Don't just stop at what to do and see when you visit, because we're more than just a destination. We're where passion is made possible.

BIKE AND BITES TOUR

Cycle your way through Singapore's cultural districts and explore the streets of Chinatown, Kampong Glam and Little India. Learn about the Chinese, Malay and Indian communities as you ride to heritage sites, temples, the home of the Sultan of Singapore and shops selling flowers, spices and scents. You'll also be treated to delicious samplings of dishes like soy sauce chicken – a quintessential Chinese favourite – and thosai, an Indian pancake made from fermented rice and lentil batter

GROWING UP - A MURAL WALK IN CHINATOWN

Yip Yew Chong's murals are the highlights of many tours through Singapore. They are colourful and extremely Instagram-able, yet at the same time they tell a segment of the Singapore story from a more innocent time. The older ones among us might notice familiar scenes and nostalgic items painted on the walls. On this walk, we want to tell you the stories that inspire these murals, and share with you little secrets we have discovered over the years. Join us as we go for a walk through time, with the murals as a gorgeous visual reference to share with you what it was like growing up in retro Chinatown.

CHINATOWN MURDERS

Chinatown Murders is a game tour by Tribe where participants are thrown into a scenario to solve puzzles. The scene is set in Chinatown where a serial killer is on the loose and the whole nation is gripped with fear. Participants are roped in to find the killer by solving a series of puzzles around Chinatown. Participants will be grouped into teams of 2-5 persons and will determine the route they take and the choice of items to pick. Narrated by a tourist guide/ game master, the guide will be in character throughout the tour, as someone with strong ties in Chinatown having lived there for 48 years. The guide will also be sharing their affiliation through the people whom they grew up with.
