REGISTERING AS A BUSINESS

Overview

Singapore-based businesses are encouraged to register through CorpPass¹ to access the full suite of features on TIH.

Overseas businesses, on the other hand, can register for a TIH Portal ID with a valid email address. With this account, users will only be able to draw content from TIH.

Note: Please refer to the table on page 18 for more information on the access rights for the different accounts.

¹ CorpPass is a corporate digital identity for local businesses and other entities (such as non-profit organisations and associations) to connect with Government agencies online.

Register using CorpPass

Register with the CorpPass option to access the full suite of features on TIH.

The screenshot shows the registration selection interface for the Tourism Information & Services Hub (TIH). At the top center is the TIH logo, consisting of the letters 'TIH' in a stylized font followed by the text 'TOURISM INFORMATION & SERVICES HUB'. Below the logo, the instruction 'PLEASE SELECT YOUR REGISTRATION METHOD' is displayed in bold, uppercase letters. There are two main registration options presented in white boxes with thin borders. The left box is titled 'For Businesses with CorpPass' and features the 'Singapore Corporate Access CorpPass' logo. Below the logo is a teal button labeled 'Register with CorpPass'. The right box is titled 'For Businesses without CorpPass (Local or Overseas)' and features the TIH logo. Below the logo is a teal button labeled 'Register for TIH Portal ID'. A black circle with the word 'OR' in white text is positioned between the two boxes, indicating a choice between the two methods.

For Singapore-based businesses that choose to register using CorpPass, you will be redirected to the CorpPass website. Please enter your login details accordingly.
